Entry Requirements

There are no pre-requisites for students planning to undertake this course.

Applicants may choose to complete the following to gain some skills and knowledge that would support them while completing this qualification:

Graduate Diploma in Management

The Graduate Diploma in Management has entry options for experienced managers, whether they have formal tertiary qualifications or not.

Enter with:

- Bachelor degree.
- Alternatively, for managers who do not have a completed undergraduate degree, you can enter the Graduate Diploma program by starting at the Graduate Certificate of Management with Diploma or Advanced Diploma and two years' management experience
- No formal tertiary qualification but five years' relevant management experience

Successfully completing the Graduate Diploma gives you a formal qualification and allows you entry into the Master of Business Administration.

Entry Requirements (Institute Specific)

- You will have successfully completed Year 10 in a Victorian secondary school or equivalent.
- Admission may be on the basis of maturity and other relevant work experience.
- Students are requested to undergo a pre-training review which includes a literacy and numeracy test.

Entry Requirements for International Students

Following are the language literacy requirements for this course:

1. Having arrived at an admission decision, the English language skills (language and literacy) will be assessed. If the student has a satisfactory IELTS score of 6 or the equivalent, the applicant will be admitted to his/her chosen course.
2. If an applicant cannot produce a satisfactory IELTS score, and there are doubts about English language skills to cope in an academic environment, the applicant is advised to enrol in an English (ELICOS) course at an approved provider for an appropriate duration until the student achieves an IELTS score of 6 or the equivalent.
3. In a situation where the student can demonstrate that he or she can communicate in English but cannot produce any formal English qualification as described above, then the student will be required to complete an IELTS test or equivalent in Australia

It is highly recommended that students are currently in a workplace or have access to a workplace for this course.

The Australian government publishes rules for English language proficiency for international students applying for entry to vocational training. You should establish your country's assessment level by reading the DHA rules at www.homeaffairs.gov.au. Be aware that the rules are subject to change from time to time.

ANIBT also accepts completion of a recognised equivalent English preparation course from an accredited ELICOS provider. Admission may be approved if the language of instruction in the student's home country is English or if English has been the language spoken in the student's home.

Overseas students who do not provide a satisfactory score from an English test recognised by DHA will be interviewed to ascertain their language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) skills and must have to do an LLN test at ANIBT.

Course Completion

Upon successful completion of this course, you will receive a nationally recognised qualification
