WHAT IS THE PRECINCT?

The Precinct is an iconic education hub within Sydney housing a number of IBT businesses including:

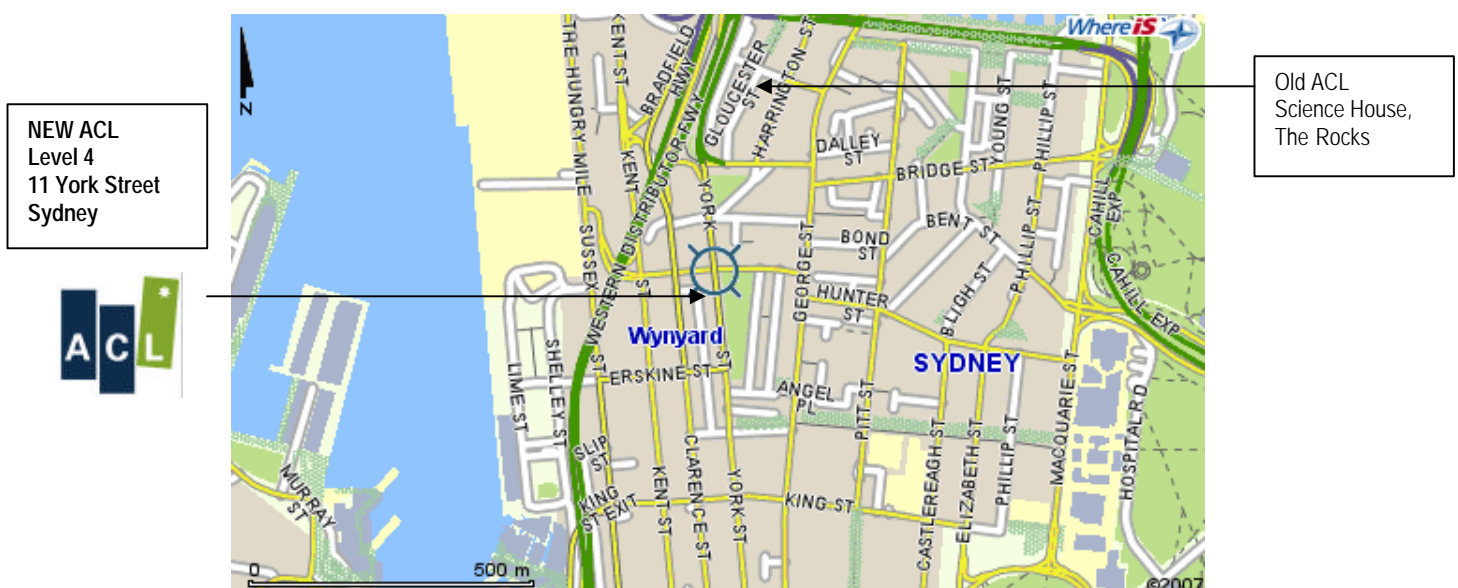

- LEVEL 4 ACL Sydney English Centre
- LEVEL 2 Macquarie City College (MCC)
- LEVEL 5 Australian College of Applied Psychology (ACAP)

The new Education Precinct will incorporate selected retail and commercial tenants on Level 1 (opening October 2007).

WHERE IS THE PRECINCT?

The Precinct is located at Wynyard Green (11 York Street, Sydney) in Sydney's central business district.

FEATURES OF ACL'S NEW CAMPUS (Level 4)

- 11 spacious classrooms
- Wireless access throughout all student areas at the Precinct
- 2 computer rooms with new computers
- Additional touch down computer express lane
- Student common room with fridge, microwaves and vending machine
- Large library (available July 2007) with shared facilities for ACL, MQC and ACAP students (on Level 2) including:
 - ⇒ Video/DVD/Audio viewing area
 - ⇒ Touch down computer express lanes
 - ⇒ Quiet reading and private study areas
 - ⇒ 'Loud area' for discussion and group work
 - ⇒ Printing and copying facilities

ADVANTAGES OF THE NEW LOCATION

- Larger, modern campus
- Central and convenient location! Above Wynyard train station and across the road from one of Sydney's major bus terminals, both servicing metropolitan Sydney
- Close to Sydney's various shops, banks, cafes, cinemas and bars.

HOW WILL THE RELOCATION AFFECT STUDENTS?

- There are no changes to courses or timetables
- Disruption to students will be minimal. Classes remain at ACL at The Rocks up to and inclusive of Friday 25 May. All students will report to the new campus on Monday 28 May.
- Temporary library facilities are available until July 2007 when the library will open on level 2
